Englewood, CO – On June 24, 2020, at approximately 6:54 p.m., Englewood Police Officers responded to a road rage incident at the Police Department, 3615 South Elati Street.

The road rage incident started in the area of West Dartmouth Avenue and South Elati Street, and ended at the Police Department. A 28-year-old female driver rammed a male's vehicle, pushing his vehicle through a landscaped area and into a security wall. When the male exited his vehicle, the female driver drove toward the male, but her vehicle was stopped by a light pole. The female fled on foot and was arrested a short time later.

The arrestee is identified as Erika A. Boudreaux, 08/07/1991. She has been charged with the following: Attempted 1st Degree Assault; Criminal Mischief/Felony; Menacing; DUI; Reckless Driving; and Drove While License Suspended/Revoked.

Please see the attached video of the incident.

No further information is available at this time due to the ongoing investigation.
